2. EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

The Eko International Trade Fair (EITF) is a five-day multi-sectoral trade and investment exhibition designed to serve as a dynamic platform for business growth, innovation, investment promotion, and regional integration.

Hosted in Lagos State, Nigeria's commercial nerve centre and gateway to Africa, the Fair brings together manufacturers, investors, policymakers, SMEs, multinational corporations, government agencies, and development partners from across Nigeria and beyond.

The Eko International Trade Fair is positioned to promote inclusive economic growth, support intra-African trade, and stimulate foreign and local investment in line with Nigeria's economic diversification agenda and the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) framework.

3. OBJECTIVES OF THE FAIR

The main objectives of the Eko International Trade Fair include:

- Promoting trade, commerce, and industrial development
- Encouraging investment opportunities across key economic sectors
- Supporting Made-in-Nigeria goods and services
- Promoting non-oil exports and value-added production
- Facilitating Business-to-Business (B2B) and Business-to-Government (B2G) engagements
- Showcasing innovation, technology, and sustainable solutions
- Strengthening intra-African and international trade relations

4. SCOPE OF THE FAIR

The Fair covers all aspects of business and economic activity, providing a one-stop marketplace for product display, networking, deal-making, policy dialogue, and market entry.

Participation is open to:

- Nigerian and foreign companies
- Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs)
- Diplomatic Missions and Trade Offices
- Chambers of Commerce and Business Associations
- Research, Educational and Development Institutions
- SMEs, Startups and Innovators

5. VENUE ADVANTAGE

Police College, Ikeja, Lagos State offers:

- Strategic location within Lagos metropolis
- Easy access by road and air
- Proximity to commercial, industrial and residential hubs
- Secure and spacious exhibition environment.

Lagos remains the commercial heartbeat of Nigeria, serving a population of over 200 million consumers and acting as West Africa's leading trade gateway.

6. TARGET AUDIENCE

The Fair is projected to attract over 200,000 visitors, including:

- Business leaders and investors
- Manufacturers, distributors and retailers
- Government officials and policymakers
- Financial institutions and development partners
- Exporters and importers
- Professionals, consumers and the general public

7. SECTORAL COVERAGE

Exhibits will reflect Nigeria's development priorities and global market trends, including:

- Agriculture & Agro-Allied
- Manufacturing & Industrial Equipment
- Oil, Gas & Energy (including Renewables)
- Mining & Solid Minerals
- ICT & Telecommunications
- Banking, Finance & Insurance
- Healthcare & Pharmaceuticals
- Personal Care, Beauty & Household Products
